

Editorial

The second edition of the International Journal Semiarid, sends us the research developed by researchers working in Basic Education, providing the incentive to research among students, these future academic researchers. The repertoire of information is included in the Science Fair.